Dear West Park Families

I hope that you are keeping well and that you are enjoying the improved weather.

For the last few years, we have been working with a charitable organisation called Positive Social. Positive Social work in schools with the objective of helping young people make wise choices when it comes to social media, protecting them today and safeguarding their futures.

With the popularity of 'Adolescence' on Netflix, Positive Social are offering parents/carers an online session to learn how to help their children make positive, informed choices on social media.

If you would like to attend a session, please click on the link below:

Thank you again for working so proactively with us to support your children. I hope you all enjoy a wonderful Easter break.

Kind regards

Scott McGregor
