Dealing with Complaints

The school will attempt to handle all concerns at the earliest opportunity and therefore avoid the need for formal procedures. Taking informal concerns seriously at the earliest stage will reduce formal complaints. The requirement to have a formal complaints policy does not undermine our efforts to resolve concerns informally as possible.

In most cases, the member of staff working directly with the pupil will receive the first approach and attempt to resolve issues, involving more senior staff if necessary.

The formal procedures will be invoked when initial attempts to resolve the issue are unsuccessful and the person raising the concerns remains dissatisfied and wishes to take the matter further. Complainants will be encouraged to state what actions they feel might resolve the problem at any stage.

Process (see flow chart)

Time scales

You must raise the complaint within three months of the incident or, where a series of associated incidents have occurred, within three months of the last of these incidents. We will consider complaints made outside of this time frame if exceptional circumstances apply. We will consider complaints made outside of term time to have been received on the first school day after the holiday period.

Anonymous Complaints

We will not normally investigate anonymous complaints. However, the Headteacher or Chair of Governors, if appropriate, will determine whether the complaint warrants an investigation.

Informal procedure

The teacher or other relevant member of staff will respond directly to the complainant and resolve the issue. If the complainant is not satisfied, they will be informed of how to proceed to the formal procedure. The form can be collected and submitted via the school office.

Formal procedure – Stage 1

The complaint is submitted on the complaints pro-forma to the Head who will acknowledge receipt, investigate and provide a written response. The headteacher will record the date the complaint is received and will acknowledge receipt of the complaint in writing (either by letter or email) within 5 school days and will aim to respond within 15 working days.

Note: The headteacher may delegate the investigation to another member of the school's senior leadership team but not the decision to be taken.

Complaints about the headteacher or member of the governing body must be made to the Clerk, via the school office.

Formal procedure – Stage 2

A request to escalate to Stage 2 must be made to the Clerk, via the school office, within 10 school days of receipt of the Stage 1 response.

The complaint is submitted to the Clerk to Governors requesting that the complaint be heard by the Governor's Complaints Panel. The complaints committee will consist of at least three governors with no prior involvement or knowledge of the complaint. Prior to the meeting, they will decide amongst themselves who will act as the Chair of the Complaints Committee. The Clerk to Governors will arrange a hearing and confirm the decision in writing.

If the complainant is invited to attend the meeting, they may bring someone along to provide support. This can be a relative or friend. Generally, we do not encourage either party to bring legal representatives to the committee meeting. However, there may be occasions when legal representation is appropriate.

Formal procedure – Stage 3

If the complainant believes the school did not handle their complaint in accordance with the published complaints procedure or they acted unlawfully or unreasonably in the exercise of their duties under education law, they can contact the Department for Education or the relevant regulatory body after they have completed Stage 2.

The Remit of the Complaints Panel

The Complaints panel will be independent and impartial and no governor will sit on the panel if they have had prior involvement in the complaint or in the circumstances surrounding it. The panel will include one member who is independent of the running or management of the school. The remaining members will consist of a cross-section of the categories of governor and be sensitive to the issues of race, gender and religious affiliation. The panel will aim to resolve the complaint and achieve reconciliation between the school and the complainant.

It has to be recognised that the complainant might not be satisfied with the outcome if the panel does not find in their favour. It may only be possible to establish the facts and make recommendations which will satisfy the complainant that his or her complaint has been taken seriously.

The panel can:

- dismiss the complaint in whole or in part;
- uphold the complaint in whole or in part;
- decide on the appropriate action to be taken to resolve the complaint;
- recommend changes to the school's systems or procedures.

Vexatious Complaints

There may be occasions when, despite all stages of the procedure having been followed, the complainant remains dissatisfied. If the complainant tries to re-open the same issue, the Chair of Governors is able to inform them in writing that the procedure has been followed and that the matter is now closed.

Investigating Complaints

The Head or nominated member of staff will:

- establish what has happened so far, and who has been involved;
- clarify the nature of the complaint and what remains unresolved;
- meet with the complainant or contact them to clarify or gain further information;
- interview those involved in the matter and/or those complained of, allowing them to be accompanied if they wish;
- conduct all interviews with an open mind;
- keep notes of the interview and record the outcome;
- provide a written response to the complainant.

Recording Complaints

The Clerk to Governors will record the progress of complaints and the final outcome and ensure that the complainant and the school have the same understanding of what was discussed and agreed.

Governing Body Review of Complaints

The Governing Body will monitor the level and nature of complaints and review the outcomes to ensure the procedure is operating effectively.

Withdrawal of Complaints

If a complainant wants to withdraw their complaint, we will ask them to confirm this in writing.

Publicising the Procedure

This procedure will be available on the school's website.
